REFERENCE - - NOT TO BE TAKEN FROM THIS ROOM

CHRIST ABOVE ALL

- "To me to live is CHRIST," that is my motto.
"One is your Master, even CHRIST," to that I have assented.
"God forbid that I should glory, save in the cross of CHRIST," that is my renunciation of worldly ambition.
"I can do all things through CHRIST," that is my confidence that His grace will always be sufficient.
"Who shall separate me from the love of CHRIST," that is my challenge to all my foes.
"That I may win CHRIST," that is my chief ambition.
"That I may rejoice in the day of CHRIST," that is my supreme desire.
"To know the love of CHRIST," that is the most precious experience in the life that now is.
"To depart and be with CHRIST," that is my intense longing touching the better, the very far better things of the life that is to come.

Dedication

He is an able teacher and a capable administrator. He faces difficult tasks with faith and courage. He handles delicate situations with tact and understanding. His fellowship is a delight and his leadership is inspiring. He loves the Lord, and reflects this fact in his daily walk. He is our friend and to him we dedicate this annual: DEAN DWIGHT W. RYTER

I - God His

My feelings at this stage in the growth of the Lord's work here on Bryan Hill are well expressed by the Apostle Paul in II Carinthians 1:10 and 11:

"Who delivered us from so great a death, and doth deliver: in whom we trust that He will yet deliver us; ye also helping together by prayer for us, that for the gift bestowed upon us by the means of many persons thanks may be given by many on our behalf."

Undoubtedly the completion of our main building will herald the dawn of a new day at the William Jennings Bryan University. Such a large and attractive building will make a tremendous difference to a school that has been making such substantial progress in spite of totally inadequate facilities.

Thus far we have been challenged to demonstrate that we deserve such a fine building. Now that we have the great responsibility of using this valuable asset to the Lord's glory, we must look to Him in the future even more than in the past as we seek to preserve the testimony that He has given us.

DR. RUDD AND ALUMNI
PRESIDENT LEWIS LLEWELLYN

The 1952 alumni project goal is set at $1,955.25 which represents the cost of 55 steel doors for the south end and tower section of the main and upper floors of the Memorial Building. This is a continuation of the 1951 project which provided the doors for the north end of the building.

A recent, though incomplete, tabulation of alumni members indicated that at least one-fourth of them are in full-time Christian service or training. There are 52 pastors, 45 foreign missionaries, 22 home missionaries, 74 seminary students, 24 teachers or staff members in Christian organizations.

Student Council

Acting as a mediating body between the students and the administration, the Student Council handles current issues of importance. The council, composed of two representatives from each class plus two members from the Student Body at large, meets weekly to discuss student affairs. In addition to their weekly meetings they have charge of the University Prayer Meeting, conduct chapel programs from time to time, represent various civic campaigns, and appoint members to Faculty-Student Committees.

OFFICERS: L. Williams, Secretary; F. Donehoo, President; S. Johnson, Vice-President.

In the upper left hand corner, Dick Shaffer presents former student, Ian Hay ('50), with a check from the Student Body to speed him and his wife, June ('51), on their way to Africa. In the center, Student Council President Fred Donehoo talks over Student problems with representatives from the various classes. In the lower right hand corner Lucy Williams, Student Council Secretary, presents a check from the Student Body to John Miesel, who was chosen to attend the Missionary Conference at Urbana, Illinois. His chapel report challenged all to "look on the fields."

C. S. A.

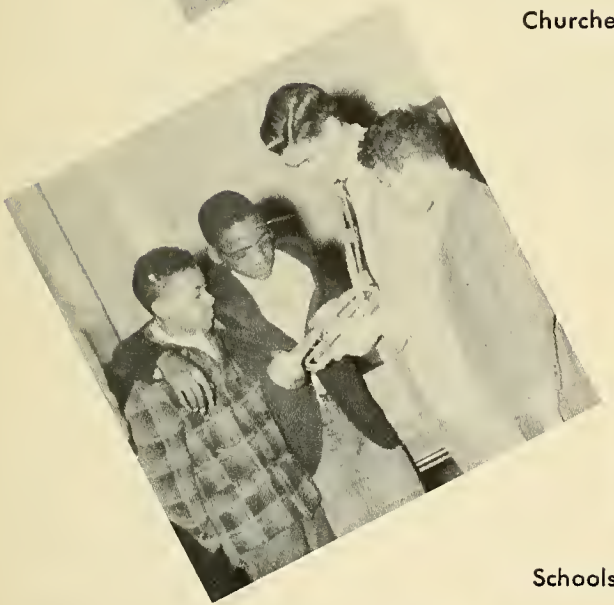

Each week under the direction of the Christian Service Association Council, approximately 177 students are actively engaged in Christian service. An average of 3,500 contacts are recorded weekly as schools, jails, hospitals, and churches are reached with the "Good News" of Salvation. Groups also go out to child evangelism classes, for cottage prayer meetings, and on the street meeting work.

At the beginning of the year the C. S. A. Council was reorganized to direct more efficiently the expanding work in the afore mentioned fields of endeavor.

"Now then we are ambassadors for Christ." II Cor. 5:20

As Christian laymen, we recognize that every walk of life should be a spirit-filled walk. Not all of God's children are called to a pastorate, or a foreign mission field, yet in II Corinthians 5:20 all are exhorted to be ambassadors for Christ. The Lord wants willing vessels to tell His wonderful "Good News" to all the world.

In Child Evangelism Fellowship those students interested in work among children share the common burden for "the little ones" that Christ commanded His disciples to "forbid not." Their meetings are centered around this burden and ways and means of meeting the need of children throught the world.

“. . . Whom shall I send, and who will go for us? Then said I, Here am I: send me.” Isaiah 6:8.

Stir me, O stir me, Lord, I care not how,
But stir my heart in passion for the world.
Stir me to give, to go, but most to pray;
Stir till the blood-red banner be unfurled
O'er lands that still in deepest darkness lie,
O'er deserts where no cross is lifted high.

Stir me, O stir me, Lord. Thy heart was stirred
By love's intensest fire, till Thou didst give Thine only Son, Thy best-beloved One,
Even to the dreadful cross, that I might live;
Stir me to give myself so back to Thee
That Thou const give Thyself again through me.

Mr. Ralph Toliver, a recently returned missionary of China Inland Mission, told of his experiences in Communist China. Mr. Toliver was the first Bryan graduate to go out as a missionary.

Mrs. Nina Van Vleck, who spent 25 years in the China Bible Seminary of Shanghai and is now working in the candidate office of the China Inland Mission, told something of the new fields they are entering and the qualifications of a missionary.

Rev. and Mrs. E. J. Pudney of the Unevangelized Fields Mission gave us an account of the Lord's working in Haiti, Belgian Congo and New Guinea.

A vivid and heart stirring picture of Europe's need in this hour was told by Mrs. Bess Cornell of European Evangelistic Crusade.

HAVE YOU HEARD? God marvelously answered prayer in our F. M. F. Conference held January 18-20. We praise Him for the speakers He sent to us and the challenging messages brought in word and pictures. Great blessing and heart searching was evidenced by all of us as we faced the challenge anew to "look on the fields for they are white already to harvest."

Athletic Committee

Under the direction of the Athletic Committee, Bryan University has enjoyed an expanded intra-mural athletic program during the school year 1951-1952. With a fall program of football, a winter program of basketball, a spring program of softball and field day, and all-year schedules in minor sports, the students are kept busy, healthy, and enthusiastically happy. A high point in the Spring Quarter is the awarding of the Intra-mural trophy to the winning class.

'51 Track

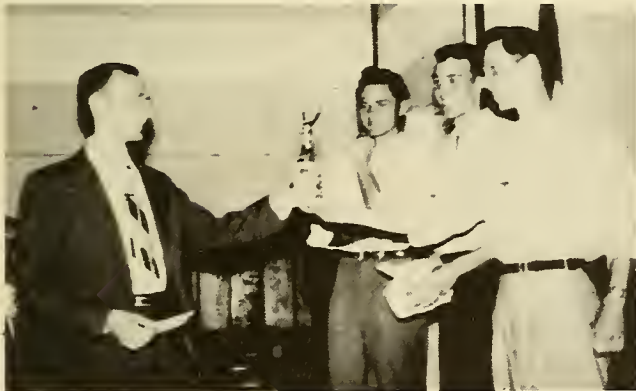

The Lions enjoyed an unusual measure of success for their first full year of intercollegiate track competition.

In a triangular meet at Rome, Georgia, Bryan placed a close second to Emory University, nosing out Berry Schools.

Bryan placed fourth in the Milligan Relays with Randy Maycumber setting a meet record in the mile run. The Bryan Distance Medley Relay team also smashed the meet record in their event.

Several Bryanites took part in the State A.A.U. meet taking second in the mile and fourth in the two mile run.

Various sports occupy the spare time of students. Girls especially enjoy volleyball. In the warmer months hiking and softball attract many participants.

Field Day

One day each year, books and work are set aside so that all may participate in a day of athletics. On Field Day the classes compete in various athletic contests with points being awarded to the winning team or individual. These points, totaled with those earned during the volleyball, football, and basketball seasons, determine the class to which the sports trophy will be awarded for the year.

Campus Clean-up

On one spring day each year, studies and all types of mental exercise are replaced by manual labor as faculty, staff, and students lend a hand in raking leaves, cleaning up debris, and white-washing rocks to enhance the beauty of our campus. This day of hard work is combined with much hilarity, and is climaxed by an evening of entertainment as the various "clean-up groups" present original skits.

Offices

Much of the work in the various university offices is done by student helpers. Students act as receptionists, typists, bookkeepers, autotypists and clerks.

Print Shop

The University Print Shop, under the supervision of Mrs. Earl Williamson, is a bustling center of activity. Here the monthly Newsette is printed, as well as the University Handbook, the University catalogue, stationery and programs. While the fellows are running the press, the girls are busy operating the addressograph, mimeographing, filing, and sending out mailings.

Lost minute preparation before mailing.

Front row, left to right: J. Brown—Head Waitress, K. Fromman, M. Snovely, E. Marks, L. Cartwright, G. Pedersen, E. Howsden, E. Caudill, D. Bean. Second row: G. Smith, L. Williams, J. Hively, L. Jahnon, R. Thompson, M. Hunter, R. Brown, M. Grover, E. Dean, N. Sweeney. Back row: B. Smetters, J. Mattison, H. Hillegas, J. Johnson, H. Landphair, F. Conner, J. Zehrun, B. Rankin, J. Conlan, A. Mayer, A. Hille.

Students meet in a homelike atmosphere to fellowship around the tables. Under the direct supervision of the head waitress and head busboy, meals are served platter style, with seconds served later. In the winter months the Saturday evening meal features candlelight and special music. During the first quarter of the current school year 53,783 meals were served. Occasionally, special groups are entertained.

BANQUETS

Thanksgiving Day is Bryan Family Day—a sort of Homecoming, when many of the faculty and Vetsville families and many former Bryanites join the students to partake of the traditional turkey dinner. Tables are decorated by assigned groups and prizes awarded the three judged to be the best.

The Christmas Banquet is carried out in a friendly but more formal atmosphere under the auspices of the Social Committee. The decorations and program are integrated with a special motif which emphasizes the Christmas spirit. Special music and a visiting speaker highlight the evening.

The Bryan banquet is observed in the Spring on the Monday nearest the birthday of William Jennings Bryan. It is also formal in character. Sponsored by the Social Committee, a program fitted for the occasion is carefully planned and carried out.

The Alumni Banquet, held the Saturday before the Commencement exercises, is the occasion of many happy reunions as graduates and former students come from near and far to see what great things the Lord hath wrought upon their beloved Bryan Hill. Usually, a graduate who has been actively engaged in the Lord's service is chosen as the speaker of the evening, bringing encouragement and inspiration to those present.

Front Center: E. Caudill, J. Zehring, W. Firebaugh. Second Row: W. Hartley, K. Fromman, M. Grover, M. Sheffield, E. Howsden, R. Thompson, G. Pedersen, J. Mattison, L. Kyker, L. Johnson, R. Kitchen

Busy, busy, busy! Yes, that is the right word to describe the University kitchen. From early morning, when the cooks and expeditors arrive to prepare breakfast, until late at night, when the last dish has been put away and the kitchen thoroughly cleaned, there is a continual round of activity.

Valuable practical experience is gained by the students employed in the Boarding Department, this year numbering 96. Under the supervision of the Department Director and the more experienced students, supplies are purchased and stored, meat processed, food prepared and served, dishes and utensils washed, equipment maintained and the rooms kept clean.

An atmosphere of cheerful cooperation and a personal interest in the task at hand combine to bring about a fellowship worth more than the monetary returns and to make the Bryan kitchen a precious memory when college days are over.

Boiler Crew

In the cold months university buildings are kept warm and cozy by the faithful ministrations of the "Iron Firemen" of the Boiler Crew.

This year, during Christmas vacation a brand new Kewanee type "C" boiler was installed in the administration boiler room.

Keeping the steam at the proper pressure requires skill and a sound knowledge of the workings of the boilers, besides many long hours of hard labor.

University Bookstore

Mrs. Addleman, David Franklin,
David Kribbs, "Ted" Payne.

Package from home . . . food maybe?

The University Bookstore in its new location has enlarged facilities for serving the student body. Books, school supplies, sweat-shirts, jewelry, and many other items offer a complete collegiate shopping service for the Bryanite.

Allen Jewett, Supervisor of University Doiry,

F a r m

The "farmer boys" take care of Bryan's milk herd of about 25 cows, and perform other general chores. Besides cows, the farm also raises pigs and chickens. The rich pastures are augmented by a large crop of hay raised each year, and strawberries enhance the school diet every spring.

R. Hayden, P. Ardelean.

Trailerville

Bruce Harrison, Mayor. "Hizzoner" and family

Stretching down the East side of Bryan Hill toward shimmering Lake Chickamauga is the little "metropolis" which is home to about thirty families. Married students live here with their wives and children, elect their own mayor and council, who administer the affairs of Trailerville.

Yes, Dear . . .
